National Association of
 Student Affairs
 Professionals

2011-2012

Dedicated to Promoting Excellence in
 Student Affairs

“ Work is Love Made Visible ”

Mission Statement

The National Association of Student Affairs Professionals, formerly the National Association of Personnel Workers, was founded in 1954 on the campus of Howard University in Washington, D.C. The purpose of the Association is:

- To serve as a professional agency for the collection of research, for the promotion of professional development and implementation of effective and efficient student services and programs;
- To develop and foster a spirit of unity and cooperation among members of the Student Affairs profession and other related professions, thereby encouraging maximum assistance to students;
- To promote Student Affairs Administration as a viable career opportunity, and life-long learning experience.

In carrying out the above, the Association:

- Provides professional development through conferences, workshops and the NASAP Student Leadership Institute;
- Serves the unique needs of minority students;
- Examines scholarly research in various fields of interest to the Association and its membership;
- Monitors legislation that impacts the programs and services related to Student Affairs specifically and higher education generally;
- Identifies and recruits new members;
- Publishes the NASAP Journal and the NASAP Focus Newsletter, and
- Assumes the advocacy role on issues that concern the Association and its constituencies.
